

Subject Index

- Abigail, 71
Adam, 46
agape, 172–174, 176–177 agency is active, 34–35
  as choice to pursue good, 148–149, 152–153 determined by what we organize, 41 in dialectical relationship with mortal conditions, 40–43 in gospel vs. in psychology, 227 morality and, 43–47
  is more than making choices, 17–19, 147 not controlled by unconscious, 124 not indeterminism, 14–15, 41 ontological level of, 20–21 as persuasibility, 23–25 phenomenological level of, 21–22 pragmatic level of, 22–23 understanding of, in relation to determinism, 12–19, 35–36 Alma the younger, 24, 34
American Psychological Association, on values, 78 anger, 61–62, 68
  antecedents, of actions, 16, 41
atomism, 131–136
Atonement, 11, 12, 44, 149, 152
Benjamin, King, 103–104 body, 122–124, 155–158
causality, formal and final, 36–39 causal mechanisms, 115–143 character development, 203–204 choice, and needs of others, 162 circumstances, decisions based on, 184, 187 Comforter, 161
communication, 96–99, 110 complexity, dealing with, 192–193 contextualism moral agency and, 42–43
  truth as seen by, 81–83
contract
  vs. covenant, 102
  marriage as, 99–101
coping strategies, reactive, 184, 185 cosmopolitanism, 84
covenant, 102–110
David, king, 71
determinism
  atonement and, 11–12
  relationship of, with agency, 14–19 unconscious, 117–125
dialogue, 85–86, 88, 89 doubt, 194–196, 196
dreams, 132
eclecticism, 139
ego, 117–118, 125
egoism
  in marriage, 94–99
  as result of hedonistic causal mechanism, 132, 133–134 elpis, 170–171
emptiness, 166
Encyclopedia of Mormonism, 101, 107
Enos, 168–169
Eve, 46
experience, as nonhedonistic motive, 129 facticity, 22–23
faith
  in another, 168–170
  benefits of divine interventions recognized through, 206–208 coping with pain through, 198 in correct principles, developing, 211–214, 216 enhanced by looking to future, 198–199 as foundational principle, 181–182 founded on correct principles, 184–188 fruits of, 203–208
  as gift, 207
  in gospel vs. in psychology, 226

- faith (cont.)
helps envision improved future, 210, 215
helps replace past patterns with direction, 211, 216
identifying examples of, 209, 215 motivates action, 188–189, 212–214 relationships built with, 205–206 strengthening, 189–203
- fear, 183–184, 194
- feminism, postmodern, 84–85
- fidelity, 108
- forgiveness, 63, 64–67, 70, 205–206
- fragmentation, 138
- Frankl, Victor, on nonhedonistic motivations, 129–130
- Freud, Sigmund
contributed to culture of suspicion, 115 premise of atomistic intrapsychic relationships of, 131–132 premise of hedonistic motivation of, 125–126
premise of no universal truth of, 136–137, 139–140
premise of unconscious choice of, 117–118
- future, potential of, seen through faith, 198–199, 210–211, 215–216
- God
covenant relationship with, 103–107 as embodiment and exemplar of all virtues, 201–202
grants gift of faith, 207 love for, 44–45
nonhedonistic motives of, 130 path leading to, 151–152 as projection of superego, 132 relationship with, 134 seeing intervention of, 206, 218–219 trusts us to act, 193–194
- good knowing, from evil, 153–155 nature of being and, 155–158 in opposition to evil, 149
- gospel methodologies not explicitly inherent in, 225
not replacement for psychotherapy, 222–224
- relation perspectives for finding truth and, 88–90
semantic interfaces between psychotherapy and, 226–228
- gratification, 98–99
- guilt, 60–61, 163–165
- hedonism, 125–131
- helplessness, 60
- hermeneutics, 85–86
- Hinckley, Gordon B., 157
- Holy Spirit, 161
- hope, for another, 170–171
- id, 117–118
- indebtedness, 103–104
- indeterminism. See determinism
- individualism, 133, 162–165, 226
- individuation, 165
- Israelites, 103, 104–105
- Jesus Christ
emphasizes nonhedonistic motives, 129 ingested light, 154
justice claims and, 66, 69 on motives behind obeying laws, 191
nonhedonistic motives of, 130
truth embodied in, 140–141
- joy, 62, 227
- justice claim, 59–60, 63–71 purposes and benefits of, 68–70
- knowledge
expanding body of, 228
as nonhedonistic motive, 129
through asking questions, 197
- Laman and Lemuel, 34
- Lehi, 24, 32, 149, 152
- Levinas, Immanuel, 86
- light, ingesting, 153–154
- light of Christ, 140, 150
- Lot's wife, 198
- love
as nonhedonistic motive, 130
for others, 167, 172–174, 176–177 relational ontology and, 88 waxes cold, 161–162
- marriage
communication in, 96–99
as contract, 99–101
as covenant relationship, 101–110 egocentrism in, 94–99

Marsh, Thomas B., 161
 McKay, David O., 157 meaning, ways to describe nature of, 36–40
 mistrust, 115, 117–125
 Mormon, 170
 motivations, 125–131
 Nephi, 88–89, 141, 151
 objectivism
     power of, 83
     truth as seen by, 80–81, 82
 obligations, moral, 45–47, 88 offender's paradigm, 61–62 ontology, relational, 86–90, 227 oppositionality, 39–40
 outcry, 66, 67–68
 pain, as motivator, 197–198
 Paul the Apostle, 28, 34, 199 perfection, 11–12
 perspective
     first-person (introspective), 34 influence of, 32–34
     privileged, 75–77, 82, 83 provided by justice claim, 69 relational, and gospel, 88–90 third-person, 33
 persuasion, 24
 Peter the Apostle, 141
 pistis, 168–170
 polygamy, 81
 positivism, truth as seen by, 74–76 principles, correct faith founded on, 185–188 recognizing, 211–212, 216 require lifestyle changes, 214–217 strengthened by acting on, 189–194, 212–214, 216
 prison, supermaximum, 174–175 Proclamation on the Family, 101 projections, 132
 psychology
     atomistic/individualistic assumptions in, 133–134
     culture of suspicion within, 115–116 fragmentation of, 138
     hedonistic motivations in, 126–128 unconscious determinism in, 118–122
 psychotherapy application of faith in, 208–217 atomism and personhood, underlying assumptions about in, 135–136
     consciousness, underlying assumptions about in, 124–125 eclectic orientation in, 139 focus of, on individualism, 110 hedonism, underlying assumptions about in, 130–131
     invitation to pursue virtue and, 158 moral agents and, 21–22, 48–53 naturalistic vs. spiritual philosophical assumptions of, 27–31 not replacement for gospel, 222–224 outcomes of, 88
     problem of creating “individuated” selves during, 165–166
     purpose of, 73
     semantic interfaces between gospel and, 226–228
     truth, underlying assumptions
     about in, 142
     values and religion in, 27, 73, 77–80 vocabulary/language of, 100, 110 questions, asking honest, 196–197 realities, perspective and, 32–33 relationism, 87–90
 relationships between acts/behaviors and antecedents, 16
     of agents vs. things, 13 eternal, 134–135
     intrapsychic, 131–132
     moral obligations in, 46, 87–88 as source of reality and truth, 86–87 trust and faith to build, 204–206 relativism
     power of, 83
     truth as seen by, 75–76, 76–77, 81, 137–140
 religiosity, 136
 repentance, 64–66
 responsibility
     assignment of, 63–64
     in marriage, 108–109
 righteousness, parallels with, and health or education, 224–225 ritual, 106
 Sabbath, 81
 Satan, 134–135, 149, 150–151, 154, 156–157

- seeds, faith and, 188–189
- self-interest, 62–63
- selfishness, 166–167
- self-knowledge, 97
- self-reliance, 200
- shame, 163–164
- Smith, Joseph
  - asked questions, 196
  - on commandments, 191n, 193n
  - on obedience, 187n
  - soulful outcry of, 66, 68
- social exchange theory, 100, 127–128
- soul, 122–124
- spirit, 122–124
- spiritual experiences, 136, 202–203, 206–208
- suffering
  - faith and, 198
  - spirituality and healing of, 33–34
- superego, 126
- suspicion, culture of, 115, 143
- teleologies, 38–39
- therapists
  - can help with agency, 44
  - as communication experts/facilitators, 97–98
  - need faith and trust in God, 217–219
  - promote self-interest, 100–101
  - receptivity of, to promptings, 141–142
  - show agape, 173–174
  - values and, 47–48, 50–52, 79–80, 81, 84
- trust, 199–201, 204–206
- truth
  - as contextual, 81–83, 84–87
  - models for describing, 74–77, 80–90, 136–139
  - parallel to “value,” 73–74
  - as relational, 141–142
- uncertainty, 183–184, 185
- universalism, 75–76
- value conflicts, 29, 50–53, 82
- veil of forgetfulness, 123
- victims, 61–62
- Wabash Valley Correctional Facility, 174–175
- weddings, 106
- Wrack, Mr., case of, 175–178